

IN THEIR OWN WORDS – WHY SOME JACKSONVILLE LEADERS ARE MEMBERS

AUDREY MORAN

Baptist Health, SVP, Social Responsibility & Community Advocacy; Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce, 2016 Chair

“Welcome! Every new WGA member makes us stronger. We look forward to your fresh energy and new perspectives.”

ANN-MARIE KNIGHT

Mayo Clinic, Operations Administrator

“One of the things that drew me to WGA was their focus on research – making certain to identify not only root causes but the best practices for achieving long-term impact.”

DEBBIE BUCKLAND

BB&T, Market President; Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce, 2019 Chair-Elect

“What I love is the way WGA gives grants. The process is so thorough – and then they measure results. I know my money is spent wisely and with maximum impact.”

ANITA VINING

Berkshire Hathaway, Realtor

“WGA is one of my favorite organizations. It makes me proud every year to write my check because I know the contribution is helping to make a difference in our community.”

MONÉ HOLDER

New Florida Majority, Legislative & Policy Director

“With two small children, I have to choose what I have time for. WGA gives me the opportunity to meet like-minded women, while balancing a career and family.”

ANNA LOPEZ BROSCHÉ

Ennis Pellum & Associates CPAs, Managing Shareholder; Jacksonville City Council, President

“Collective giving makes so much sense. By working together, we have much more impact than doing anything on our own.”

MARTHA BARRETT

Bank of America, SVP, Corporate Social Responsibility

“New to the area? My advice is ‘join WGA.’ It’s the fastest way to connect with smart, like-minded women, plus get involved locally and make a difference.”

DONNA ORENDER

Orender Unlimited (Gen W), CEO; WNBA President 2005-2010

“WGA is all about strategic philanthropy. When women join together, good things happen. It’s time we took greater responsibility for our charitable giving. Join us!”

The Women’s Giving Alliance consists of 409 women who pooled their gifts in 2017 to make $447,000 in grants to benefit women and girls in Northeast Florida.

Connect with us:

